D E D I C A T I O N

Mr. Robert V. Tierney

For eighteen years you have served the students of J.C.H.S., as a teacher showing a sincere interest in your students, as a counselor guiding youthful paths to the future, and as vice-principal, coordinating the activities of the school.

Despite the countless tasks that demand your attention, we know that we can always look to you for advice and counsel. Whatever the circumstances, your decisions have been fair and understanding.

Many changes have occurred in Caldwell High — we have passed from an old building to a new one; classes have come and gone, but your willingness to serve the students has never changed.

It is in appreciation and gratitude for your assistance to us and to those before us that we, the Class of 1965, dedicate The Clarion to you, Mr. Robert V. Tierney.

Class History

Those were the years at J.C.H.S. . . .

Our sophomore year . . . the great transition from braves to chiefs . . . then we were the little men on the totem pole, with Sandy Walton, Deon Tempfer, Chris Cochrane, and Kathy Leuzarder as our leaders. . . . Remember the football concessions? Sophomore super salesmanship, "Please buy something — anything?" Our first try at the One Act Trophy . . . Beginner's luck? No, pure talent! Sandy Walton was best director, Steve Papaleo and Nancy Condit, our most talented performers, and the coveted Over-All Production Award was ours.

The Shipwreck Party . . . our first class dance and what a success . . . everyone agreed that we were the class with the most spirit . . . And, of course, there was the candy drive, airplane glue and mints, pestering our neighbors at all hours . . . usually in vain.

"Damn Yankees" was unforgettable, cast parties, Princeton . . .

To climax our first year, the pool party . . . damp weather but unaffected spirits. Two wonderful years were yet to come . . .

Our junior year . . . we were neither the oldest nor the youngest, but still the best, under the leadership of Steve Papaleo, Tom McGrath, Sonia Parry, and Ellen Pelusio . . .

But suddenly, sadness . . . J.F.K. was assassinated . . . silence and tears . . . dear God, why? In his memory a donation to the Tippit Fund.

Victory! The Thanksgiving football game against Verona . . . the traditional football trophy was returned to its rightful home . . . Yeah Chiefs!

"We're in the money" . . . magazine drive . . . plateaus, a trip to New York . . . how could we ever forget the sore feet and the people who said, "No!"

Another tragedy . . . the loss of Mr. Vorwerk, our dedicated counselor . . . a scholarship fund established in memoriam.

Roaring Twenties Party . . . Hawaiian Party . . . and, of course, the Prom . . . "Joie de Vivre!"

THE YEAR . . . seniors, the school leaders . . . watching the underclassmen come in that first day, and wondering if we could ever have been that uncertain . . . Sonia Parry, Claudette Wassil, Judy Brennan, and Mike Saltzman helped to make it the best year ever . . . after all it was our last!

Yearbook pictures in summer . . . senior write-up sheets, the standard pet peeve — conformists!

J.C.H.S. politicians aroused community interest in election issues . . . slogans preserved the dignity of the presidency . . . "Turn out L.B.J. in '64" . . . "Goldwater for Halloween."

"What's the word?" . . . "Beat Butler" . . . remember the rally? . . . surpassed only by the final score . . . but the biggest thrill was maintaining that trophy on Thanksgiving!

Our first senior class party . . . the kiosk and a French cafe . . . that "legit" basketball game — followed by our favorite team of precision dancers . . .

College boards, applications . . . the long wait . . . acceptances. . . . The rest of the year passed quickly . . . senior week, the Prom, senior assembly, Culvermere . . . and . . . Graduation . . .

We left J.C.H.S. prepared for a great step into the future, but there would always be the memories of . . .

The greatest years that ever were!

Clarion

Layout sheets, copy papers, yearbook receipts, and senior write-ups are all a part of the memories of the Clarion staff of 1965. Although there were times when it did not seem possible that everything would be ready for deadline—"We Made It!"

Through our theme "That Was The Year That Was" we have portrayed our sophomore, junior, and senior years as they happened, the events that made them memorable, and the people who shared them. Through the use of color, we hope this year's Clarion proves to be the best book yet.

Our sincere thanks go to Carol Wiggs, our Editor-in-Chief, and to Mr. Allan Engel, our chief "critic" and advisor. Without his friendly guidance and assistance the Clarion could not have been completed. We would also like to thank Mr. James Young, our photographer, for his excellent work and co-operation, especially during tight schedules.

Now that our work is completed, we hope that the "65 Clarion" will always bring back fond memories of J.C.H.S.

Mr. Engel, chief critic and censor.

"Not another petition?"

"And this too shall pass."

The Clarion mascot, Socrates.

An informed student body is the aim of the Caldron, which publishes six pages of news, features, editorials, and sports each month.

For the past six years the Caldron has been ranked among the top ten high school newspapers in the state by the Scholastic Press Association of New Jersey.

Headed by co-editors-in-chief Judy Gould and Sue Krouse, the staff works under the guidance of faculty advisor Mr. George Harrison. Journalism students comprise the staff, and each year the outgoing staff select those who will fill positions the following year.

I'll never forget all your problems and all your figures and never change. Good luck! Love Krouse

The American Field Service is the organization responsible for the exchange student program at James Caldwell. The organization was lead this year by Co-Chairmen Sandy Walton and Kathy Vorwerk with Marcia Mungenast as Vice-President, Sandy Munn as Treasurer and Jane Matthews as Secretary.

"Pippa" Gordon from South Africa was the 1965 foreign exchange student. As a "sister" of senior Barbara Schrick, she entered actively into American life. None of J.C.H.S.'s last year's finalists were chosen to travel under the American Field Service-Americans Abroad Program, but we have hopes for this year's finalists, seniors Beverly Birkenmeier and Malla Godfrey, and juniors Sandy Munn and Marcia Mungenast. These students were picked after careful consideration and we wish them the best of luck!

Working in connection with the West Essex branch of the Caldwell A.F.S. chapter, we again sponsored a fund raising concert presented by the University of Pennsylvania Glee Club. The concert was a big success; the boys seemed to enjoy themselves as much as their audience.

Americans Abroad Hopefuls: Malla Godfrey, Marcia Mungenast, Bev Birkenmeier, Sandy Munn.

As the governing body of James Caldwell High School, this year's Student Council was led by Jerry Fain, President; Jeanne Lange, Vice-President; Gail Borst, Secretary; and Bob Feldman, Treasurer.

The council was made up of thirty-one representatives and alternates elected by their respective home rooms. Business meetings were held on every other Tuesday. Student Council pins were given to the representatives who wanted them.

The Council sponsored a successful hootenanny in January featuring Sheila Jenness and the Princeton Trio, to which all Suburban Conference Schools were invited. The organization also bought a bulletin board for the Student Commons to help inform the students of all activities.

The Student Council organized a J.C.H.S. talent show as well as a Suburban Conference Talent Show. After the first basketball game with Verona, a dance was held for both schools.

The Student Council has instituted many new ideas and projects this year that have helped both the students and the school.

Jerry Fain, Student Council President.

A "big splash" in Crane's Pool marked the initiation of several juniors of the class of '65 into the N.H.S. As things "dried out," N.H.S. officers were elected as follows: President, Paul Silberberg; Vice-president, Sandy Walton; Secretary, Cindy Luce; and Treasurer, Sue Robinson. Members of this highly respected national organization are selected on the basis of scholastic achievement, sound character, and leadership ability. This particular class is proud of the number of seniors who qualified for membership this year — the largest in J.C.H.S. history!

N.H.S. activities included a picnic, the annual senior trip to the shore and a dinner for the Honor Societies of the Suburban Conference. Members also served as guides and ushers throughout the year at "College Night," P.T.A. Open House, and commencement exercises. A special assembly and induction ceremony for new members is held in the spring.

The Chieftain

The Chieftain is James Caldwell High School's award winning literary magazine. A member of the Columbia Press Association, the Chieftain has twice been ranked a first place magazine on the national scale. Miss Miriam Kahn and Miss Florence Pollock helped it toward its aim: "To encourage students to express their own ideas and thoughts through poems, stories, essays, and reviews."

Library Council

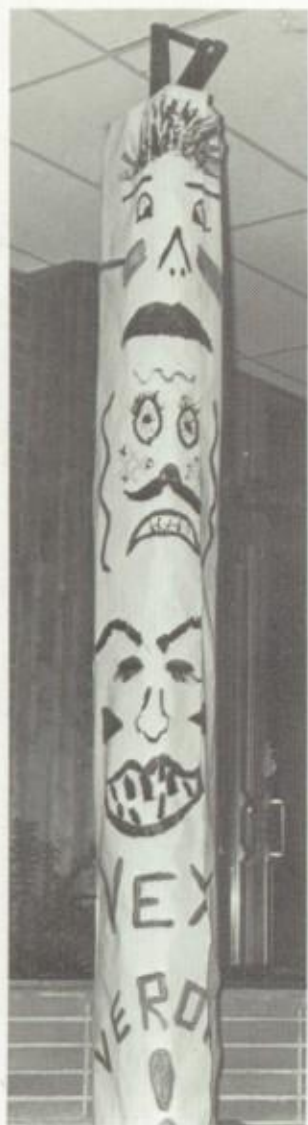

The Library Council, with a membership of 36 students, effectively carried out the duties of the library. Each member repaired, shelved, and learned to process books. The librarian gave instruction on library duties at each meeting of the Council. Discussions of activities, such as the Spring and Fall Conferences also took place at the meetings. The annual Christmas party and a field trip were part of this year's events.

The executive board consisted of President Sue Nystrom, Vice-President Sandy MacElroy, Secretary Barbara Vayhinger, and Associate Secretary Carolyn Stickney.

A high point of the year's activities was a lecture given by Dr. John B. Tsu, director of Far Eastern Studies at Seton Hall University.

Spirit Club

Now in its third year, the Spirit Club has become a necessary part of J.C.H.S. life. Under the leadership of its annually elected officers this club sponsors pep rallies and dances throughout the football season, which is climaxed by the traditional Thanksgiving parade, pep rally, and dance. The members' distribution of booster buttons and spirit posters throughout the school were well known pre-game preparations. During the winter season the Spirit Club joined with the Caldwell-West Caldwell Recreation Commission to bring to J.C.H.S. many Recreation Nights.

These activities are all means to an end—which we hope will result in better school spirit and attitude.

The Debating Club, with the leadership of President Bob Feldman, Vice-President Allen Shulman, and Secretary Fran Pelchar, has had an active and successful year. The group debated inter-scholastically in both the Suburban Conference and the New Jersey Forensic League on the topic "Resolved: That Nuclear Weapons Should Be Controlled By An International Organization" and on other topics. The club was under the able guidance of Mr. William Mungenast.

Human Relations Club

The Human Relations Club met throughout the year under the fine supervision of Miss Colette Garimaldi. Making students more aware of the social problems in America was one of the club's activities. Their goals included a trip to the Cooper Union Conferences, inviting guest speakers to meetings, seeing films and having jam sessions.

This year the Youth Center Board, working in co-operation with the Y.M.C.A., sponsored the X-IT, a youth canteen where students enjoyed dancing, folk-singing, and other activities.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America led by Sue McCance, President; Donna Strigari, Vice President; Michele Backlar, Secretary; and Janet Laird, Treasurer, gave students a chance to find out what they would like to know about teaching. All new members were the guests of the F.T.A. at a tea. Students observed classes at various schools in the system twice this year. Frequent meetings prepared the students for the annual East Coast Model United Nations Conference. Under the direction of Mr. Malcolm Clark, this year's committee traveled to Newburyport, Massachusetts, in April. There each student represented a delegate from the Philippines, our assigned country. Daily sessions and social events gave all students a most rewarding, educational experience.

A student was only invited to join the Varsity Club if he had earned three school letters in one sport or varsity letters in two different sports. Applicants must have had the recommendation of all of the coaches who awarded him letters and have obtained the approval of the principal. Members must also maintain a C average (minimum) and show respect for the club's standards at all times in order to stay in good standing.

The purpose of the French Club was to promote interest in French civilization and French culture. Open to all present and previous French students, the club was led by President Antionette De Costanza, Vice-President Marie Letchko, and Treasurer Judy Friedman. The main event of the year was the International Dinner sponsored by the French Club. All language clubs participated by bringing food typical to their respective countries and providing some form of entertainment.

The Junior Classical League is a Latin students' organization affiliated with the American Classical League. Students presently taking Latin, or who have taken Latin within the past two years are eligible for membership. The J.C.L. officers were Richard Caruso, Consul; Phyllis Kagan, Pro-Consul; Barbara McCabe, Quaestor; and Virginia Collins, Scriba.

One of the major purposes of this organization was to increase the appreciation of the ancient Roman culture and its contributions to the modern world. Promoting ideals of scholarship and good citizenship was also an important part of J.C.L.

In addition to the annual trip to New York City, the Junior Classical League sponsors an authentic Roman banquet each spring. The menu, costumes and entertainment follow in the Roman tradition.

A scholarship is offered each year to an outstanding senior Latin student who personifies those qualities of scholarship and citizenship which are basic to J.C.L. philosophy.

This year's officers, Elaine Anderson, President; Doug Veltre, Vice-President; Beverly Birkenmeier, Secretary; and Tom Michalik, Treasurer, have planned many activities including field trips, a Christmas party, and the traditional Christmas Cookie Sale. At various times speakers from Germany have made the club meetings much more interesting.

The Biology Club was founded to allow those students interested in biology to socialize and to study topics of general scientific interest. The officers of the club were Antoinette De Costanza and James Sheriffs, Co-Chairmen; Richard Sullivan, Secretary; and Susan Sherlock, Treasurer.

This year the Biology Club has visited colleges, including Montclair State College and Rutgers University. Weekly meetings were held at which time a program of scientific interest is presented. In the spring an annual picnic was held for all Biology Club members, their advisor, and guests.

Next year, the group plans to add another complete station and to hold more classes for an increased membership.

Stage Band

The J.C.H.S. band, directed by Mr. Keith Brion, has been expanding and improving at a tremendous rate. Mr. Brion, assisted by Mr. Robert Helmacy, Dr. David Waters, and Mr. John Schulz, has implemented an original lesson program which provides private instruction for all instrumental students as well as special sectional rehearsals.

The concert band performs throughout the year at various assemblies and concert programs. Highlighting this year was the winter concert which featured a premier performance of "Suite for Band" by the renowned Alan Hovhaness who further honored the band's performance by his personal appearance. Among other "Firsts" were a concert given by the combined J.C.H.S. band and the Susquehanna University Band and the exchange concerts with Monticello High School in New York.

Marching Band

The Marching Band met during the football season and performed musical shows for half-time entertainment. An unusual addition to Caldwell's performances was the introduction of "Modular Motion" into the drill, an experiment in simultaneous group marching at different speeds. Besides marching in various parades, the band also performed at the Clifton Band Festival.

The Dance Band was converted to a "Stage Band" this year under the direction of Mr. Schultz. Interested teachers and students rehearsed many new arrangements each week in anticipation of several performances.

This year's band officers included Student Director, Paul Silberberg; Assistant Student Directors, Wayne Klohs, Bob Hodges, and Sam Blakeley; and Business Manager, Bob Feldman.

Three organizations comprise the James Caldwell High School Chorus, the Mixed Chorus, the Special Chorus, and the Girls' Special Chorus. Those participating in the special choruses were required to audition and have been taking voice lessons throughout the year. Highlights of our year have been the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, and a visiting performance at Hillside High School, during the Christmas season.

A new aspect in chorus this year is the Chorus Council. It meets once a week to discuss the happenings of the chorus. Officers are: President, Nancy Thyren, 1st Vice President, Rodger Moylen, 2nd Vice President, Sue Solakian, Student Director, Robert Hodges.

Editor's Corner

To you, Carol Wiggs, in sincere appreciation, we dedicate this page of the 1965 "Clarion." Through your hours of tireless effort, your patience with a stubborn staff, your constant endeavor for originality in "copy" and variation in "layout" design, you have made a dream a reality and given to the Senior Class and the entire student body the memories of a year made tangible in this book.

The Caldwell Chiefs, with many returning lettermen, had hoped to "win more in '64" as they finished the season with a 3-6 record. The team finished on a high note, however, as they beat Verona 7-0 on Thanksgiving morning to retain the Alumni Club Trophy.

Thirteen seniors ended their high school football careers this year. Jim Beck, Rick Berg, John Burgio, Glen Donker, Dan Handy, Co-Captain Ron Murphy, Dave Nudenberg, and Tony Scillia all performed creditably. A special note goes to Co-Captain Bob Charpentier, who was named third team All-State tackle, and to Ed Ashby, Bob Malinak, and Pat Ward, who were placed on second team All-Conference lists.

Hopes are high for next year. Seven starters from Thanksgiving's game and fifteen lettermen will return. Coupled with able men from the J.V. and Frosh teams, the Chiefs will have a lineup that boasts of valuable experience. It is felt that next year's Co-Captains Joe Albano, Bob Lister, and Bruce Saylor can lead the team to "come alive in '65".

Caldwell's 1964 soccer team posted a 2-9-3 record in a rebuilding year. Under the direction of Coach Peter Jirak, the team was comprised of many underclassmen, who gained valuable experience. Co-Captains Tom Ward and Robbie Montgomery along with Jerry Fain and Bob McQuilken were the seniors who saw the most action. These four, in addition to Doug Olson, Jim Prendergast, and Steve Scher, will be lost to the team next year.

Both of the team's wins came in the same week at the expense of Verona and Cedar Grove, by scores of 4-1 and 5-0. The team played well in its other games but could not find the nets often enough.

Standouts Tim Lyman, Larry Collingwood, and Kip Monell give Caldwell rooters hope for an improved season in 1965.

SECOND ROW: Coach Berkman, B. Jensen, J. Taetzsch, B. Saylor,

J. Albano, R. Hawkey, B. Edwards, B. McQuilken, M. Shine, B. Andriola, P. Meszaros, R. Olson, H. Koolen, Coach Trimmer.

Caldwell's 1964-65 basketball team finished its season with a 6-13 overall record, and a 4-10 mark in Suburban Conference competition. Under Coach Berkman, for the second year, the team played some excellent basketball. Because of a lack of height, however, the Chiefs could not battle such giants as Summit, New Providence, and Cedar Grove.

Four seniors started for the team this year. Bob Hawkey, a guard who maintained a 15 point per game average, and Bob McQuilken finished with a 10 point average. Sparky Koolen and Jim Taetzsch both fought hard and rebounded well against taller opponents. Ray Olsen saw action as a substitute and highlighted his season with an 18 point performance against Summit. Pete Meszaros, the only other senior, played excellent ball and came through with points and rebounds when they were most needed.

Many underclassmen saw a good deal of action this season and proved that next year's squad will have great ability. The loss of six seniors is a drawback, but the 1965-66 season should be a successful one.

The 1965 wrestling team had the first winning season in the history of this sport at Caldwell High School. Under Coaches Jack Newman and Don Murray, the boys worked hard to get in shape and to "make weight". The hard work paid off.

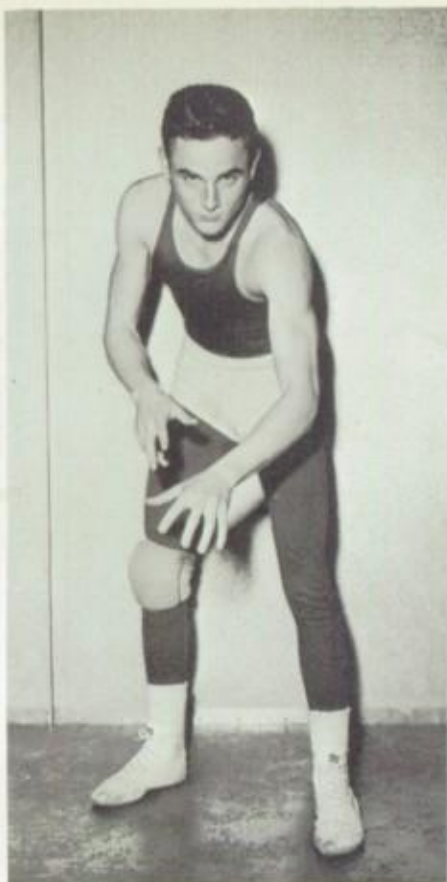

The highlight of the season came on February 10 against Morristown. The Chief's grapplers had never previously beaten this team, and the final score of 25-16 assured them of their first winning season.

Another high spot of the year came when the Varsity and Jayvee teams ran up a combined score of 94-6 against arch-rival West Essex on February 3. The Varsity sailed past the Knights 44-6, and the Jayvees romped 50-0.

Co-Captains Ed Ashby, Bruce Ebner, and Tom Ward, along with Dave Hinck, Wayne Klohs, Robbie Montgomery, Jim Prendergast, Gordon Sanford, Paul Silberberg, and Pat Ward will be graduating this year. A capable group of underclassmen should continue our winning tradition in '66.

Coached by "Chief" Bonnel, this year's baseball team has high hopes for improving its 8-11 record of last year. The prospects seem very good with seven senior lettermen returning. These include Pat Ward, who led last year's pitching attack, and Bob Charpentier, who was Caldwell's leading hitter for the 1964 season. Other returnees are Jim Beck, Bruce Ebner, Gordon Sandford, Tony Scillia, and Don West.

FIRST ROW: B. Hawkey, F. MacKinney, J. Burgio, T. Ward, H. Koolen, J. Fain, S. Corollo, B. Malinak, B. Heading, R. Olson. SECOND ROW: T. Wilkins, D. Tannenbaum, D. Shorter, B. Andriola, B. This year's track team, under the direction of Head Coach Dwight Burr, Assistant Coach, Mr. Lowell Seymour, and Co-Captains Tom Ward, "Sparky" Koolen, and Jerry Fain, is working hard to improve upon last year's 5-6 record. Due to the return of many experienced trackmen this year, the running events, high jump, and broad jump seem to be the strong points this season. Bill Mudd and Bud Robinson led the sprinters while Steve Shyne, Tom Ward, Brian McDermott, Kevin Hanlon, and Tom Michalik are experienced in the longer distances. The team has high hopes for Bob Andriola and Ray Olson in the hurdles, and Bob Malinak and Jerry Fain are both excellent in the broad jump. Malinak broke the school broad jump record last year and both could very possibly set new records this year.

Girls' Sports

Physical Education teachers Mrs. Estelle Bordner and Miss Paula Catalano proved this season that whatever "Chief" could do with his boys, the girls could do better! A variety of activities were offered to those girls interested in after school sports.

Field Hockey was played in the fall with the girls traveling to three away games. They played at Glen Ridge, Parsippany and Verona.

The girls held weekly co-ed volleyball practice with the faculty sometimes joining in. They competed in a playday at West Essex in which they attained third place.

The newly formed Modern Dance Group studied and practiced the various techniques of this interesting art form. Several members participated in a Dance Symposium under the direction of Mona Sherman at West Essex. Twenty other schools were represented.

With the assistance of Mr. Black, the practice teacher from Springfield College, the tumbling team worked towards adding to its repertoire of stunts at weekly practice sessions.

A busy season was scheduled for the spring sports teams. The tennis team practiced for matches against Glen Ridge, Mount Saint Dominic, and several other schools while track and softball also prepared for their competitions.

It has been brought to our attention that an expanded program and a greater number of interscholastic games would be possible if more girls would show interest. The extent of the girls' sports program depends upon the number of girls willing to participate in these events.
